

PLEASE do not increase media consolidation. Radio has been ruined by media consolidation. There are no regional differences anymore around the country, and in San Francisco, the same content is running concurrently on different stations.

I can hear ABC radio news on three local radio stations at the same time! In the evenings, the same national shows can be heard on several different stations. All of these frequencies are being wasted.

Media consolidation has really made my life worse. Please stop it.